MARKET DESIGN

We are delighted to announce Dr David Byrne, Professor Simon Loertscher and Mr Gary Stoneham as the recipients of the 2017 Melbourne CSHE Award for Excellence in Engagement – Research.

Their submission was titled ‘Promoting Competition to Reduce Taxes and Prices to Australians’ and outlined how the Centre for Market Design team continue to drive innovative and significant economic research, whilst work diligently to engage the public, industry and international community to ensure the learnings are applied to benefit society.

David Dickson, Head of Faculty of Business and Economics congratulated the team on their achievement and “the exceptional contribution they continue to make to the Faculty’s and University’s research, teaching and engagement priorities”.
